SNOWSHOERS WILL TRAMP ON TUESDAY

Tickets Will Be Sold On Saturday.

REFRESHMENTS.

Snowshoe Club Held Executive Meeting in Union Last Night.

A tramp will be staged by the Snowshoe Club on Tuesday next, December 7th. This was decided at a meeting of the executive held last evening in the Union. It was further determined that tickets should be printed and placed on sale at the porter's desk at the Union, and also in the various faculty buildings. The charge will be fifty cents a couple and twenty-five cents single.

It is planned to secure a room in the Union, if possible, and to serve refreshments after the snowshoers have returned from their tramp. It is anticipated that a large crowd will attend. Arrangements have been completed with a downtown concern to supply the snowshoes and mocassins, so that the fact of not possessing snowshoes should in no way deter any who may wish to be present.

Already there has been great interest manifested around the campus in this popular Canadian sport. All those who have at any time been out on snowshoes need no urging, but for those who are perhaps slightly hesitant about trying for the first time, again we repeat: "Anyone who can walk, can snowshoe." Therefore, let the hopes of the executive be fulfilled: on Tuesday night let us see a noisy throng pursuing their way towards the snow-covered expanses of Mount Royal.

Of course, it must be understood that the tramp is entirely dependent upon the state of the weather. Weather conditions permitting,—that is, providing that by Tuesday there is a new fall of snow, as is extremely probable,—the function should be an unqualified success. But if there should be a lack of favorable weather, the affair will have to be postponed till a later date.

Tickets will be obtainable Saturday morning at the Union, and at the various faculty buildings probably on Monday.

Preliminary to arrangements for an inter-faculty run, the executive are desirous of obtaining an idea of how many men will turn out. To this end, lists are being posted in the various buildings for the signatures of all interested. Sign up, men, and indicate at the same time if you would like to run.

It is proposed to enter men in the carnival which the Ski Club are holding, and also in the coming Dartmouth meet, later on.

WRESTLERS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS

Classes Being Filled Up—Old Men Help Coach Smith.

Yesterday afternoon the Wrestlers had a good workout under Coach Smith. A large number of men turned out, and at present the outlook is very bright. Four men under 110 pounds and four over 158 pounds have been turning out regularly during the last week or so. This leaves only one position to be filled, and that is for a man weighing over 175 pounds.

Work began at 5.30 and continued to be fast throughout the hour. "Dave" MacKoen still looks good for the 175-pound class, while Armstrong and Freedman will make good middleweights. Montgomery continues to show good style in the welterweight class, and as yet is almost alone. However, Emmons has shown up well and may do well.

Matthews, Rhind and Reid are all good men, and two of them will probably be chosen to give an exhibition at the "Old Scouts" Smoker, on December 9.

The men working hard for the 110-pound class are O'Hagan, Phelan and Procter. These fellows are new at the game, but with some coaching will make good little wrestlers.

The next practice will be on Saturday afternoon at 2.30, and Mr. Smith will probably have some outside men to work with the McGill wrestlers.

"BOO" ANDERSON.

At the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Senior Rugby Team, "Boo" Anderson was unanimously elected Captain of the team for the next season.

RUGBY RIVALS SEEK SUCCESS IN LIT. FIELD

McGill - Varsity Debate in Union To-Night.

LIVELY SUBJECT.

Should Military Training For Arts Students Be Made Compulsory?

McGill and Varsity will clash again at the Union to-night, when an inter-collegiate debate will take place. The subject under discussion is: "Resolved, that military training should be compulsory for Arts Students in the Canadian Universities." McGill is arguing on the negative side. Toronto will be represented by Sturtevant, Rhodes scholar for Ontario, and member of this year's rugby team, and Roxburgh, while McGill will pin her faith on Roy Dillon, Law '21, and Rene Perrault, Sci. '21. These two men are undoubtedly the most brilliant of this year's crop of speakers in the Literary and Debating Society and there is no doubt but that the negative side of the question will be set forth in a most convincing manner and that the judges will declare McGill the winner.

This is an inter-collegiate clash and as such it is to be hoped that the hall will be filled to capacity. While the McGill speakers will not have the "thundering thousand" to cheer them on, nevertheless a large and sympathetic audience will do a lot towards bringing victory to Old McGill.

HISTORICAL CLUB.

The meeting of the Historical Club which was to have been held to-night has been unavoidably postponed until next Tuesday.

CUT OF TOWN MEN.

The Hospitality Committee will be pleased to meet any out of town students who will have next Sunday free, if they will call at Strathcona Hall either to-day or Saturday from 5 to 6 p.m.

All the advanced men are asked to turn out, because it is hoped to hold a meet with some teams around the city before Christmas.

INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATE

Once more we meet our old rivals from the University of Toronto and though this time, the forum will replace the barred field, we are certain that to-night's debate will afford all the excitement and interest one inevitably associates with a McGill-Varsity encounter.

The resolution which is to be the basis of the debate will be "Resolved that military service should be compulsory for students in the Arts Faculties of the Canadian Universities." Our visitors will support the affirmative while the McGill orators will argue for the negative. The subject is one which is full of possibilities and is sure to ensure a keen debate. The natural prejudices of the average student, and especially the returned men, against any form of compulsion is perhaps compensated for, to some degree, by the restriction of the scope of the resolution to Arts students. This concession was doubtless made on the presumption that those following an Arts course are more favorably situated as regards time and opportunity than their less favored brethren of the "specialized" faculties. In any case, the subject presented by the terms of the resolution is an open one and gives splendid opportunities for argument on both sides.

The importance of these Inter-Collegiate debates cannot well be questioned. Besides the undoubted impetus which they impart to the all-important subject of public speaking, they are productive of much healthy discussion and individual thinking. It is to be regretted that in past years, Inter-Collegiate debates have not received the support which they deserve, but with the noticeable recrudescence of interest in the "Lit" this year, it is entirely probable that to-night's debate will set a new record in the matter of attendance. The student who fails to avail himself of this opportunity of hearing the leading debaters of both universities, is indeed missing a "championship fixture."

R. V. C. NOTES

A cordial invitation has been received by the staff and undergraduates of the R.V.C. to attend the Inter-Collegiate Debate to be held this evening at 8.15 in the Union. Representatives of McGill and Toronto will debate on the subject of Military Training in Canadian Universities. All those interested are welcome.

Correspondence

The "Daily" is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY. No communications will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Dear Sir,—
May I ask for space in your valued paper to answer the charges and insinuations made in a letter of yesterday's issue of the "Daily" by one who pleased to sign himself as "Anxious."

There seems to be some apprehension as to whom "Anxious" is. It seems difficult to understand that it could come from an individual who was present when the constitution was ratified, as it would certainly show a marked disposition of disloyalty both to the student body and to the institution with which he is associated. On the other hand, it is extremely difficult to think any one not in some way associated with the Society could have possibly portrayed so much knowledge as to detail, which, even in this respect, I am sorry to say, he has sadly perverted.

As your correspondent intimates, for many years the students of the Co-operating Theological Colleges seemed to have lived in complete isolation, taking very little interest in undergraduate activities. I can well remember an editorial during my undergraduate days bringing this matter very forcibly to the forefront. This attitude, indeed, was to be regretted, and was, no doubt, far more keenly felt by the Arts Theologs, who endeavoured to the best of their ability to take their full share of responsibilities.

As the Arts Theologs joined the Alumni they still had to hear the activities of their Alma Mater, and they still remembered the stigma resting on the theologs. As members of the Alumni, and at the same time undergraduates in theology, some have desired to see the theologs as a body develop to break down the barriers of isolation which existed between the respective Colleges and McGill. In order to develop the College spirit of McGill among the body of theologs it is necessary to have banded together all those who are pursuing a course of study for the purpose of ultimately entering the ministry, in order that we as a body may best determine how we may serve and participate in the affairs of the University. Where there is unity there is strength.

In some of our Canadian and English Universities, I understand, this has worked very successfully, and the theological students connected with these Universities have through their organizations materially assisted in promoting College spirit, concerning which we read so much in the "Daily" last year. The theologs are attempting to do this. Now that they are "out of their shell," they have no desire to return. The Theological Undergraduate Society, therefore, has for one of its chief aims the continual breaking down of the barrier of isolation—to make the affiliation to the University something more concrete, and, to repeat, to promote to the fullest extent the participation of the theological undergraduates in and about the University. I hope I have shown that the Theological Undergraduate Society does not intend to put the theologs "into greater seclusion than ever," but rather to inculcate a spirit of increased activity more so than at present.

So much for the first objection; now as to membership. Here, once more, I think the Society was not shown in its true perspective. Generally speaking, we may divide the theological body into three main divisions, or classes. In the first we may include all those who are taking the prescribed theological course; club is quite sure of turning out its quota of athletes for the B. W. and F.

We would again remind the members to stow away their tools after they are through.

The next practice will be on Tuesday, at 5.15 p.m., at the Union. Turn out everybody. You are needed.

INDOOR BASEBALL.

Commerce '22 indoor baseball team will play Arts '22 team in the High School Gym. at 6 p.m. to-night.

secondly, those who are pursuing an undergraduate course in the University; and, thirdly, those preparing for matriculation. All classes are termed theologs. Theologs, in the sense that they are pursuing a course preparatory to their ordination. The primary object of their education is for theological preparation, and students pursuing such a course are called by the student body of McGill as theologs.

The Society is pleased to call the first class undergraduates, since they are termed such by the Faculty of Theology of the Co-operating Colleges; and for its reason that the Students' Council of McGill have recognized their positions, and upon the payment of the universal fee have extended to them the full privileges of the undergraduate body. As to the second class, that is, of men registered in the University, their status as undergraduates is obvious. Relative to the third class, the matriculants, their position is made clear by the constitution, which clearly states that they may become associate members. As such they cannot hold any office in the Society, nor can they vote on any matter or question pertaining to our relation with the University.

With reference to the finances, your correspondent would imply that the Society would request the "authorities"—whoever they may mean to refund one dollar for every member who has paid his universal fee to the College. No definite policy has been formulated in this respect; and it is the height of presumption to assume as fact something which has not been seriously taken up nor discussed by the executive. Many of us fully realize that the so-called dollar fee would not be forthcoming from "every member who has paid his universal fee to the College."

Turning our attention to the remark that the "Association would tend to disintegrate the spirit of McGill," a word or two would suffice in this matter when I say the constitution clearly states that one of its chief aims is to foster the College spirit of our members at McGill.

In spite of the many calls made by theologs registered in the University to carry on the affairs of their own respective Colleges, they have also supported their University Faculty. If we care to look back we will find that theologs who were foremost in the affairs of their own College were to the forefront also in University activities. The theologs are loyal and intend to remain loyal to their University.

In closing, I would like to draw your correspondent's attention to the fact that three out of the four officers elected are graduates of McGill. When "Anxious" suggests that the Theological Undergraduate Society will disintegrate the spirit of McGill he is certainly casting reflection on those men. Surely McGill has not lost her confidence in her sons to use their influence and to seize every opportunity they have to bring together more closely all those who are in any way connected with the University. Thanking you for your space.

I am,
Yours truly,
NORMAN E. PETERSON, B.A.
President
Theological Undergraduate Society.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Dear Sir,—
Permit me to express in a few words my appreciation of the co-operation which was so willingly given in the arranging of the Junior Dance.

It is my privilege to especially mention the assistance rendered by the ladies of the Royal Victoria College, and particularly those of the Junior year. To them must rightly be given the credit for the decorations which were so widely admired. In fact, on no occasion was help wanting, and the admirable spirit with which Juniors of all faculties, and especially Science, responded, was very gratifying.

In conclusion, and on behalf of the committee, I desire to thank the various members of the staff of the University who so readily gave of their time and material in arranging the electric lighting effects. Our thanks are also due the officers of the Union for their courtesy, and to the Students' Council for using their influence with the Committee on Social Functions.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am,
E. S. MILLS,
Chairman Junior Dance Committee.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Dear Sir,—
A few of us—students in theology—who have completed the Arts requirements of our churches are firmly convinced that the only "Theological Society" that will command the respect of the McGill students and self-respect must be one whose membership is confined to those who are giving practically their whole time to work in the Co-operating Theological Colleges. Men studying Arts and Theology combined should throw in their influence with Arts activities. Matriculation class men should not be invited to either Arts or Theological activities. If they wish any affiliation they should seek it with the High School. "Matriculation," "Undergraduate," "Arts," "Theology," let each word be used honestly in its distinctive sense. As Mrs. Carlyle used to say—"The one big sin is mixing things."

Yours sincerely,
DIVINITY STUDENT.

FAITH

What is the keynote of all our business dealings with one another? What has made possible all the big things that have ever been done? What is it that sends men in search of education to fit themselves for life's battle? Faith--every time.

Faith, in a large measure, is responsible for the present position of this shop---Faith-based on a knowledge that the clientele which we have served faithfully in the past will come to us again secure in the knowledge that a square deal awaits them.

We ask you, McGill Men, to look over our low-rent prices and the values we can show you, before you purchase elsewhere---To you a ten per cent discount always applies.

Faith in ourselves and public judgment tells us that you'll find what you want.

WATER POLO TO-NIGHT AT M.A.A.A. TANK

Fifty Tickets on Sale at Union After 12 Noon.

STRONG TEAMS.

Championship Games Will be Closely Fought—Rooters
Turn Out.

To-night at 8.15 in the M.A.A.A.atorium there will be played two championship Water Polo games, which, undoubtedly, will provide a small amount of interest and excitement to all present. Both matches are between M.A.A.A. and McGill teams, the one in the Intermediate Series and the other in the Senior.

During the past few weeks both of McGill's teams have been working hard to get into shape, and Coach Vernot has spared little to bring his men into a winning condition.

The presence of the Rooters will afford no small support for the McGill representatives, especially so, when they will be under "Teedies" Thompson.

It is greatly hoped that there will be a full representation of both McGill boys and supporters from the R.V.C., for a good deal depends upon the aid afforded by the Rooters.

It has been suggested that when the Science Freshmen-Sophomore banquet is over, which is being held at the Windsor Hotel to-night, that the boys go in a body to the M.A.A.A. and give a few rousing cheers to the Seniors, who will then be making a determined attempt for the cup.

There will be only fifty tickets for McGill Rooters at fifty cents, and these will be on hand at the Union and R.V.C. at noon, so anyone wishing to take advantage of this reduced rate, remember that there is only a limited number on sale.

McGill Intermediate line-up:
Goal—W. Lalshiey.
Defence—D. Foss, W. S. Munro.
Forwards—L. Winter, M. Bruker, N. Owens.

Substitutes—Wade, McKindsey.
The M.A.A.A. Intermediates will be selected from:
T. Quirk
B. Quirk
S. Hughes
F. McConnell
A. Silver
C. McKay
Colville.

McGill Senior line-up:
Goal—L. Walters.
Defence—R. Foss, R. W. Bastable.
Forwards—G. Vernot, G. H. Flisk, L. Parsons.

The M.A.A.A. Senior team will be chosen from:
D. McGill
G. Hodgson

G. Ritchie
C. Colville

WISE AND OTHERWISE..

As our ol' fren' says in the Illini:
There was a young man who said
"How

can I wheedle home brew from a cow?
If I give her a feast
Of raisins and yeast,
Some odd thing must happen, I vow."

We hand it to the wit whose musings in Social Psychology ran thusly in response to the query as to "What was the lowest standard of living?"
"Four wop families in the east-end living in a one-room flat, and then one of the families deciding to take in boarders."

Judging by the "fine seegars" that our Cuban correspondent sent us as a birthday gift, we have to admit that he knows the ropes down there.

Of special interest to ye good old Mods. is the following item from the "Sun dodger":

An Invite.
Jack—"Do you object to kissing on sanitary grounds?"
Jackette—"Oh, no."
Jack—"Then let's take a little stroll through the infirmary."

And still another contemporary is reminiscent of the good old summer time, his refrain being:
He took her rowing on the lake,
She vowed she'd go no more,
He asked her why—her answer came.
"He only hugged her on the shore."

Friend Oscar was lured to a charity bazaar in Westmount the other night, and being asked by a member of the R.V.C. to make a purchase at her table, his reply was that "he was sorry, but he only bought from the homely girls, as they had so much harder a time making sales." And he says he got away with it! We've got the sole right of this for the "The Dansant, so rake up a better excuse!

Overheard.
First Co-ed—"Why are you taking a B.Sc. course?"
Second Co-ed—"Oh, I thought it would look better."

SCHOLARSHIP FOR LADY GRADUATES

Valuable Scholarship Offered
To Encourage Research
Work Among Women.

The following are the regulations printed in the University Woman's Chronicle regarding the Scholarship offered by the Federation of University Women of Canada to women employed in graduate work:

Federation Scholarship.

1. The Scholarship of the Federation of University Women in Canada, of the value of $1000, available for study or research work, is open to any woman holding a degree from a Canadian University. In general, preference will be given to those candidates who have completed at least one or two years at graduate study, and have a definite research in preparation. The award is based on evidence of character and ability of the candidate and promise of success in the subject to which she is devoting herself.

The choice of the University at which the successful candidate shall pursue her study or research work is left to the Committee of Selection in consultation with the candidate.

2. There are no application blanks and application is made by letter to the Convener of the Scholarship Committee, Mrs. Duncan B. Gillies, 26 Rathnally avenue, Toronto.

Applications and recommendations must be received not later than February 1st. None can be accepted after that date.

3. The letter of application should contain an account of the applicant's educational training and a statement in full of the plan of study or research she intends to pursue. This information should be accompanied by:

(a) A written statement from the President or Acting President of the college or university, awarding the degree held by the applicant to the effect that her application as a suitable candidate is approved.

(b) Testimonials as to her health, character, ability and scholarship.

(c) Theses, papers or reports of investigations published or unpublished. The committee cannot assume any responsibility for collecting testimonials for an applicant.

These papers, etc., and letters submitted by the applicant will be returned if postage is sent for that purpose. Confidential letters sent are kept.

4. A candidate whose work is eminently satisfactory may be appointed for a second year.

5. The Scholarship is payable in two equal instalments, on July 1st and January 1st, by the Treasurer of the Federation, provided the successful applicant sends her address for those dates.

BASEBALL GAME TO-NIGHT AT HIGH

Has Received Recognition by Athletic Association.

There will be a baseball game this evening at 6 o'clock at the High School Gym., between Arts '22 and Commerce '22. Indoor baseball is now recognised by the Athletic Association, and much interest and keen rivalry is being shown between the teams. The baseball committee regret that no spectators are allowed to watch the games on account of the lack of space. However, all those who are interested in the game are urged to turn out for the class practice. In the present league each year is represented but after Xmas two teams are to be entered in the City League.

WHISTLING FOR TAXIS.

Some alarm was occasioned when it was announced that the order, under the Defence of the Realm Act, suppressing the whistling for taxis in the streets of London had not been revoked. The whistle had not the mellow note of the instrument used by the owner of a dog, nor the peculiar spasmodic wall of that blown by the football referee. It had all the accumulative power of the call for police assistance, the warning of the fire-brigade's approach, and the steam siren combined, swelling in triumphant crescendo in the main streets from morning till night, as if defying the utmost ingenuity of the Edisons and the Bells to invent a more reasonable substitute. Happily the fact that the Defence of the Realm Act relinquished control does not unleash the pandemonium, since the London County Council has now stepped in with a restraining by-law.

Among the ineffable achievements of civilization in which we share is the privilege of hearing the "By Jingo" record, by a xylophone orchestra, played on a $1,200 Renaissance Model phonograph.

CLASS HEADS DISCUSS TIME FOR PRACTICE

Dr. Lamb and Jim Cully Are Present.

IMPORTANT MEET.

Great Interest Shown—Bids
Fair For Successful
Season.

A very important, though brief, meeting was held yesterday in the Union at 5.15, when the different class representatives assembled to arrange practice hours for hockey. Dr. Lamb was present at the opening of the meeting, and, upon departing, introduced Jim Cully, president of the Hockey Club.

It was hoped that two hours might be allowed each class for practice, but for the present at any rate, only one hour can be spared. The fact that the rink is open for Social Skating between the hours of 4 to 6 in the afternoon and 8 to 10 at night is certainly a drawback, but just as soon as a time-table is finished, a great many classes may be granted two hours. For this reason, it is hoped that all classes that can spare the time in the morning or in the early afternoon, will hasten to inform Cully of this fact through their representatives at the earliest opportunity.

One other thing must be understood by all that intend to use the rink, and that is: that during the practice hours of the women students, the men are in no way to interfere with the members from the R.V.C. Last year a great many complaints were made under this head, and it is hoped, nay requested, that the rink users be there only at the times assigned and that they attend strictly to business while there. There is a special time for Social Skating. It is to be distinctly understood that the R.V.C. representatives are in no way to be molested, however slightly, during their hours of practice.

The following are the only classes that were not represented at the meeting: Third Year Commerce, First Year Medicine, and Third and Fourth Years Dentistry. The four representatives of these classes are asked to inform Cully immediately by note (c.o. the Union porter) of the practice hours that would be convenient for them. No time is to be lost; a time-table is already in the making; and it is hoped that all will help to make this season's hockey the most successful in history.

THE DANSANT.

Have you secured your tickets for the The Dansant? They are now on sale at the Union, and may also be purchased from members of the R.V.C. The committee in charge wish to emphasize the fact that no tickets will be sold at the door.

Will the out of town students who will be in the city on Christmas Day please send their names as soon as possible to Mr. McKay, secretary of Strathcona Hall.

CLUB ACTIVITIES WERE DISCUSSED

Plans Formulated by Mari-timers For an Excellent
Season.

A largely attended meeting of the Maritime Club was held at Strathcona Hall last evening. The meeting came to order with the president of the club, Mr. H. L. Webster, in the chair. After the reading and adopting of the minutes of the last general meeting, new business was discussed.

The president cordially welcomed the presence of the girls from R.V.C., and assured them that their interest in the club was very much appreciated. Miss Edith Barnes was unanimously elected as representative to the executive.

The combined Maritime and Western Club dance was then discussed. The president narrated the steps taken which led to the decision of the Students' Council in the matter. He explained that although the dance would not be an exclusively Maritime one, yet it would lead to a better relationship in respect to the two clubs, and tend to result in a very cordial feeling being established. After some discussion, it was agreed that the active members be given preference in the matter of purchasing tickets, and after, the tickets be thrown open to non-members. It is felt, however, that on account of the limited number there will be many disappointed. The president commented on the fact that there were many members not actively interested, and urged those present to take more interest by influencing others to join up.

The matter of membership fees was here discussed, and it was suggested that only the male members be required to pay the membership fee. The R.V.C., however, disagreed with this proposal, as they could not countenance the idea of not participating in the financial side of the club's existence. It was finally agreed that a fee of one dollar be accepted from the male members and fifty cents from the girls. All eligible members are requested to get in touch with the treasurer, A. R. Lawrence, in the near future.

The president then outlined the efforts made in regard to Christmas holiday transportation. He stated that the C.P.R. and C.N.R. authorities, while eager to accommodate the students in every possible way, altogether discouraged the idea of reduction in rates. In fact, they say, there is no possible hope of any consideration in this respect. The matter, however, has been taken up by Sir Arthur Currie, who is interviewing the Railway Commission, and it is hoped that something may be done to revert to pre-war days. This news was heartily applauded, and it is felt that the new Principal, Sir Arthur Currie, is actively interested in student welfare.

Notices are to be posted in the Union giving the rates to and from the principal points in the Maritime Provinces. Sleeping car accommodation is being reserved, and it is expected several cars will be used for students exclusively on the evening of the 21st. Arrangements have also been made with the railway officials to be in the Union on certain days to be decided on later, and this will

"FED UP" WITH THE DIGGINGS?

Then See A. Richards at Hall
5—6 To-Day and Sat.

That there are many out of town students with us this year is a striking fact to anyone who has stopped to think of it. It is still more evident to those who have had anything to do with the student affairs in general. As McGill has no dormitories at which this large part of our student body can reside and develop an esprit de corps, most of the non-Montrealers have to put up at boarding houses many of which afford but little comfort to the student and which are often exceedingly discouraging to them, and to the freshmen in particular who are at present preparing for examinations of one sort or another, and who are sounding the path of their new phase of life in the form of a college career. The new scholar often feels inclined to imagine when in a downcast frame of mind, or "fed-up feeling," when things seem to be going the wrong way and when he is many miles from home, that college life is all very fine but he thinks he would like to get back home to have a good blow out among people whom he knows well, feels inclined to leave the new situation into which he has spent a few months, to get in a word, as many miles away from his boarding-house in order to get new blood into his activities.

For these fellows with whom the "Y" has not already got in touch with, the members of the Hospitality committee would be more than glad to meet. Each Friday and Saturday from 5 to 6 there is always a representative at Strathcona Hall who will be only too pleased to meet the out of town chaps and to welcome them to a special programme which has been drawn up especially for them. Remember to-day, 5 to 6 p.m., at Strathcona Hall. Come and find out for yourself what's on.

ADDRESS AT HALL ON WORK AMONG BOYS

Capt. Phillips Gave Interesting Talk Last Night.

MANY PRESENT.

Numerous Phases of Social Work Treated in Illuminating Fashion by Speaker.

The first of the series of monthly lectures on Social Service arranged for by the Social Service Club proved a great success, when, last night, Capt. Phillips delivered a talk on "The Underprivileged Boy." The speaker showed that he is a very convincing talker, and the large number who heard him were fully won over to his views. Taking the evening as a whole, it can be said that great credit belongs to the executive for its excellence.

O. P. Beamish, the president of the club, called the meeting to order, and asked N. Vineberg, the treasurer, to speak on the activities of the club. Vineberg said that the club proposed to hold numerous visits to the social centres in the city, such as the Laverley Settlement, Griffintown, and the jails. Speaking of the latter, he said that three visits would be made next week to Bordeaux, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. No more than twenty-five men can go on one afternoon. Also, he said that Director Landian, of Bordeaux Jail, is going to deliver some lectures to the club on reforms.

After several other matters had been discussed, Beamish introduced Capt. Phillips, who is superintendent of the Griffintown Boys' Club. The speaker first gave the reasons why students should be interested in Social Service. Firstly, students should get used to leadership, and this is their opportunity. Secondly, "boyhood is what society makes it," and it is up to those who form a part of society to see that boyhood is made what it should be. In a recent inquiry, said Capt. Phillips, the boys of Canada and the U.S. were found to be divided into three classes—the over-privileged, the privileged, and the under-privileged. It was found that about 66 per cent. belonged to the latter class.

He then went on to speak of some of the phases of work among the boys. Discipline, he said, is a detail that must be adhered to closely. Also, companionship is very necessary—the boys must not be suppressed, but directed. He also touched upon the athletic and social activities that his club took part in. He also read a poem which asked for men to lead in the work, and the last line of which is: "You can hear the leader calling, not for money, but for men." In ending, Capt. Phillips emphasized two facts. First, that the boys have a right to demand service, and that it's up to someone to give it to them. Second, that the person who does this work not only benefits the boys but also himself.

The club gave a hearty vote of thanks to Capt. Phillips for his address.

A short discussion followed, during which coffee and cake were served, after which the meeting adjourned. Many of those present went away much enlightened as to what Social Service and boys' work means, and it looks as if a large number will turn out in future to the activities of this very excellent club.

THE FUTURE. (Sonnet.)

Were I to think my life to naught would come,
That all my hopes the light would never see,—
I know, alas, my heart would then decree
That I should cease whatever work's begun.
The setting sun doth say the day is done:
Shall then my hopes forever be at sea,
And never reach the land, fair sheltered lee,
On Destiny's white sail? Ah, no, the sun
Can not, in all the splendour of its gold,
Outshine the life I fain would love to own.
Or make the fruits of labor taste as gall;
For, when my knell at last has slow been tolled,
And all my years inscribed in cold grey stone,
The World shall say, "Of him, he's given all."

INAUGURAL DINNER WAS ENJOYABLE

Cosmopolitan Club Met in Union Last Night.

GOOD ATTENDANCE.

Dean Adams Spoke on Great Value of the Club.

The Cosmopolitan Club held the first function of the season in the form of a dinner in the grill room of the Union. The guests of the evening were, Dean Adams, of the Faculty of Science, and Mr. McKay, secretary of the McGill Y.M.C.A.

The management of the Cafeteria supplied a dinner of its usual high order.

At the conclusion of the meal, the vice-president outlined the objects of the club, which, in brief, were: The instilling in its members those principles of Canadian life as well as the principles of the life of other peoples. Its members were men of all countries as well as from other British colonies.

Dean Adams next spoke, and told of the advantage that students had of studying in foreign countries, citing his own experience in this matter. He, Dean Adams, said, in conclusion, that it is only by infusion of the best in other people's lives and ideals that the human family could reach the high attainments at which it aimed from time immemorial, because no people had a monopoly of knowledge or of moral discipline. The speaker further pointed out that the Empire was held together not by centralized government but rather by common aim.

Mr. McKay was called upon next to speak, and expressed that he was more than pleased that his efforts, feeble as he thought, had come nearly to full maturity. He further expressed the hope that the club would take a leading place among college activities.

Mr. Amirkhanian, an Armenian and a member of Law '21, next gave a concise, lucid and graphic description of Armenian history, tracing its existence as a nation from 4000 B.C. His discourse was truly a revelation to those who had not studied history in such minute detail as Mr. Amirkhanian. It is only Mr. Amirkhanian who could have dealt with such a subject. He mentioned the influence that the Armenians had on the history of the world, and especially European history, the facts of which are so little known. The speaker also emphasized the fact that no particular people were responsible for the progress of civilization, and that it was only by studying other peoples and appreciating their point of view that the world would be made safe for democracy.

The musicians of the club entertained with selections from classics. The singing of "Hail, Alma Mater" brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

Permission was granted to "Dud" Ross and Clair Ward to play Indoor Baseball in the Military League. W. F. Pratt was reinstated in the A.A.

A heated discussion took place as to whether or not the Association should play graduates in the City Hockey League. Finally a committee was appointed to report to the A.A. as to whether or not this should be done.

The Snowshoe Club made application for entrance to the A.A., but it was decided that they should run under their own constitution for a year before the application would be considered.

Some trouble has been experienced with men applying to play basketball with outside teams. It is felt by the Association that any undergraduate should give his college the first chance. Accordingly, men will have to turn out at college before any application will be considered for outside teams.
